

No greife is lyke to myne (Pandolpho, part II)

Robert Parsons (c.1530-1572)
King's College, Cambridge, Rowe Music Library, MS 2. (Turpyn Lute Book, 1610-1615)
edited by Grant C. Herreid

1

No greife, no

bass lute

7

greife is lyke to myne wych naught but death can swage

13

my help is hurt my weale is woe my rest is ruthe - less

19

rage my com - fort is my care my saf - ty

25

ship-wrack is my med-cine is my mi - se - ry and 31

bale is all my bliss my medicine is my mi - se -

37

ry and bale is all my bliss fare -

43

well fare - well fare-well fare - well fare-well my friend - ly

49

foe pan - dol - pho pan - dol - pho proud fare -

55

well fare - well the cau - ser of my woe Y

61

love and lothe to live Y live and long to dye

67

come death come death come death dis-patch her life her life

73

her life her life she yeelds to dye come death come

78

death come death dis-patch her life her life her life her

83

life she doth de - sire to dye.